

I am alarmed at the attempt by the Consumer Bankers Association to reverse the protection Indiana residents have had from unsolicited phone calls.

I would strongly urge the FCC not to allow the perceived marketing wants of the member banks of this organization to again impose on the rights of Indiana citizens. Thank you.